

Review of Nathanael Greene and the Southern Campaign

BibleMouse.com

Understanding Military Strategies in the Revolutionary War

Name: _____

Date: _____

Answer the following questions based on the lesson about Nathanael Greene's Southern Campaign.

1. Who was Nathanael Greene and what role did he play in the Revolutionary War?

---

---

2. What was Nathanael Greene's nickname?

- A. The Fighting Quaker
- B. The Brave Soldier
- C. The Southern General

3. Nathanael Greene used strategic retreats to weaken British forces.

- True       False

4. Greene's strategy involved using ____ and local knowledge to his advantage.

5. What does Proverbs 21:31 teach us about victory in battles?

- A. Victory comes from preparation
- B. Victory belongs to Yahweh
- C. Victory is guaranteed for the strongest

6. Why might retreating sometimes be a smart military strategy?

---

---

7. God's providence is recognized in military conflicts according to the lesson.

- True       False

8. Conserving ____ and resources was important for Greene's military strategy.

9. What was a key advantage that Greene had during his campaign?

- A. The element of surprise
- B. Knowledge of the local terrain
- C. More troops than the British

10. How can patience help in winning difficult challenges, as discussed in the lesson?

---

---

---

Answer Key

1. Nathanael Greene was a general in the Continental Army who led the Southern Campaign against the British. 2. The Fighting Quaker 3. True 4. terrain 5. Victory belongs to Yahweh 6. Retreating can preserve troops and resources for future battles while wearing down the enemy. 7. True 8. troops 9. Knowledge of the local terrain 10. Patience allows for careful planning and can lead to better decisions during tough situations.