

Rivers and Lakes: Water Features Review

BibleMouse.com

Geography of the United States

Name: _____

Date: _____

Answer the following questions based on the lesson about rivers and lakes in the United States.

1. What is the longest river in the United States?

- A. Missouri River
- B. Mississippi River
- C. Colorado River

2. Why do you think early settlers chose to live near rivers?

---

---

3. Rivers provide important resources such as ___ and transportation.

4. Rivers do not connect different regions of the country.

- True       False

5. What does God call the gathering together of the waters?

- A. Lakes
- B. Seas
- C. Rivers

6. How might rivers help both people and animals?

---

---

---

7. The scripture Genesis 1:10 mentions that God called the dry land ___ and the gathering of the waters ___

8. Rivers are unimportant in God's creation according to the lesson.

- True       False

9. What do rivers support in addition to human needs?

- A. Only transportation
- B. Ecosystems
- C. Nothing at all

10. What was the most interesting river you learned about in this lesson?

---

---

---

Answer Key

1. Mississippi River 2. Early settlers chose to live near rivers because they provided water for drinking, farming, and transportation. 3. water 4. False 5. Seas 6. Rivers help people by providing water and transportation, and they help animals by creating habitats and food sources. 7. Earth, Seas 8. False 9. Ecosystems 10. I found the Mississippi River interesting because it is the longest river and has many cities along its banks.