

Biblical Principles in the Constitution

BibleMouse.com

Review and Comprehension

Name: _____

Date: _____

Answer the following questions based on the lesson about how biblical principles influenced the Constitution.

1. What does Romans 13:1 teach about authority?

- A. Authority comes from God
- B. Authority is only for leaders
- C. Authority is unimportant

2. Why is it important to limit human authority according to the lesson?

3. The Constitution reflects principles of ____, justice, and limited power.

4. The lesson states that government should have absolute control over individuals.

- True False

5. What is a key reason for separating government powers?

- A. To create confusion
- B. To reflect biblical wisdom
- C. To increase government size

6. How can leaders serve people justly according to the lesson?

7. Proverbs 29:2 reminds us that when the righteous increase, the people ____ .

8. The lesson emphasizes that leadership is a responsibility, not absolute control.

- True False

9. What does the memory verse from Proverbs 29:2 highlight about leadership?

- A. Good leaders bring joy
- B. Leaders should be harsh
- C. Leaders are not important

10. What biblical principle surprised you today and why?

Answer Key

1. Authority comes from God 2. Limiting human authority is important because humans are imperfect and can misuse power. This ensures fairness and justice in leadership. 3. Christianity 4. False 5. To reflect biblical wisdom 6. Leaders can serve justly by being fair, protecting individual rights, and being accountable to the people they govern. 7. rejoice 8. True 9. Good leaders bring joy 10. I was surprised that the Constitution is based on Christian values because I didn't know that it connected so closely to the Bible. It makes me think about how important these values are in governance.