

Review of The Promise of a Bill of Rights

BibleMouse.com

Understanding Compromise and Rights

Name: _____

Date: _____

Answer the following questions based on the lesson about the Bill of Rights and compromise.

1. What was the Bill of Rights and why was it created?

2. Why did the Federalists agree to add a Bill of Rights?

- A. To protect the states
- B. To gain support for the Constitution
- C. To create a stronger government

3. The Anti-Federalists were in favor of a strong central government without protections for individual rights.

True False

4. Compromise was important because it helped ____ the new nation.

5. How can people with different views work together to find common ground?

6. What does Proverbs 15:1 teach us about communication?

- A. Harsh words are always better
- B. A soft answer can calm anger
- C. Avoid talking to others

7. Respecting different opinions can lead to positive change.

True False

8. Why is compromise important in a democracy?

9. The Bill of Rights protects the rights of ____ in the United States.

10. What rights did early Americans feel were most important?

- A. Freedom of speech and religion
- B. The right to bear arms
- C. The right to privacy

Answer Key

1. The Bill of Rights is the first ten amendments to the Constitution that protect individual rights. It was created to ensure that the rights of the people were safeguarded and to gain support for ratifying the Constitution. 2. To gain support for the Constitution 3. False 4. unite 5. People can listen to each other, share their ideas respectfully, and seek to understand the other person's perspective. 6. A soft answer can calm anger 7. True 8. Compromise is important because it allows different groups to work together and find solutions that benefit everyone, ensuring that all voices are heard. 9. individuals 10. Freedom of speech and religion

