

Review of President George Washington

BibleMouse.com

Understanding Leadership and Example

Name: _____

Date: _____

Answer the following questions based on what you learned about George Washington and his presidency.

1. How was George Washington elected as the first president?

- A. He ran against many candidates
- B. He was unanimously elected
- C. He was appointed by Congress

2. What qualities made Washington a good first president?

3. Washington believed in serving ____.

4. Washington set many important precedents for future presidents.

- True False

5. Why is character important in leadership?

6. What does Proverbs 22:29 teach us about skilled people?

- A. They will lead armies
- B. They will stand before kings
- C. They will be famous

7. Washington's leadership during the Revolutionary War showed his strong sense of ____.

8. Washington believed in serving himself above others.

- True False

9. What can we learn from Washington's example as a leader?

10. What role did Washington's character play in his election as president?

- A. It was not important
- B. It helped him gain respect and trust
- C. It made him famous

Answer Key

1. He was unanimously elected 2. Washington was humble, skilled, and had strong character. He set a good example for future leaders. 3. others 4. True 5. Character is important because it builds trust and respect. Good leaders inspire others to follow. 6. They will stand before kings 7. duty 8. False 9. We can learn that humility, service to others, and strong character are essential for good leadership. 10. It helped him gain respect and trust
