

Washington's Farewell Address Review

BibleMouse.com

Understanding His Key Advice

Name: _____

Date: _____

Answer the following questions based on Washington's Farewell Address.

1. What was Washington's most important advice for the young nation?

- A. Avoid political parties
- B. Form strong foreign alliances
- C. Increase military power

2. Why did Washington worry about political parties?

3. Washington encouraged Americans to see themselves as a united people.

- True False

4. Washington warned against letting political ____ divide the country.

5. How can people disagree but still respect each other?

6. What did Washington say is crucial for the new nation?

- A. Maintaining peace
- B. Building more cities
- C. Expanding territories

7. Washington believed that foreign alliances were always beneficial for the nation.

- True False

8. The scripture connected to Washington's advice is Proverbs 11:14, which says, 'Where there is no ____, a nation falls.'

9. Why is unity important in a country?

10. What does Washington's advice demonstrate about leadership?

- A. It is unimportant
- B. It requires guidance
- C. It is always easy

Answer Key

1. Avoid political parties 2. He believed that political parties would divide the country and weaken national unity. 3. True 4. disagreements 5. People can listen to each other's opinions and find common ground, even when they don't agree. 6. Maintaining peace 7. False 8. guidance 9. Unity helps a country stay strong and work together for common goals, making it more resilient against challenges. 10. It requires guidance