

Review of The Rise of Political Parties

BibleMouse.com

Understanding Early American Political Views

Name: _____

Date: _____

Answer the following questions based on what you learned about the emergence of political parties in early America.

1. What were the two main political parties in early America?

- A. Federalists and Democratic-Republicans
- B. Democrats and Republicans
- C. Whigs and Federalists

2. What did Federalists believe about the government?

---

---

3. Democratic-Republicans wanted more power for ___ governments.

4. Both Federalists and Democratic-Republicans wanted what was best for the new country.

- True       False

5. What is one way we can show respect to others with different views?

- A. By ignoring them
- B. By listening and discussing calmly
- C. By arguing loudly

6. Why is it important to listen to others, even when we disagree?

---

---

---

7. Proverbs 15:1 teaches us that a ___ answer turns away wrath.

8. The emergence of political parties only caused division among Americans.

- True       False

9. What did early Americans debate about that led to the formation of political parties?

- A. How to make laws
- B. How the government should work
- C. How to choose a president

10. What did you learn from the Party Perspective Debate activity?

---

---

---

---

Answer Key

1. Federalists and Democratic-Republicans   2. Federalists believed in a strong central government to help manage the country effectively.   3. state   4. True   5. By listening and discussing calmly   6. Listening to others helps us understand their viewpoints and can lead to respectful discussions.   7. soft   8. False   9. How the government should work   10. I learned how to express different viewpoints respectfully and understand others' opinions.

---

