

Regional Economic Differences Review

BibleMouse.com

Understanding How Geography Influences Economy

Name: _____

Date: _____

Answer the following questions based on what you learned about regional economic differences.

1. What type of economy was most common in the Southern region?

- A. Manufacturing
- B. Agricultural
- C. Technology

2. How did geography impact the types of jobs people had in different regions?

---

---

3. The Northern region was known for its _____ and industry.

4. The Western region focused mainly on agriculture and farming.

- True       False

5. Which resource was primarily grown in the South?

- A. Wheat
- B. Cotton
- C. Corn

6. Why do you think some areas grow different crops?

---

---

7. According to Genesis 1:29, God provided every herb and tree for _____

8. The Western region developed due to its resources and frontier opportunities.

- True       False

9. What was an economic activity in the Western region?

- A. Manufacturing
- B. Farming
- C. Fishing

10. How can understanding regional economies help us today?

---

---

---

Answer Key

1. Agricultural 2. Geography influenced the resources available, which determined the types of jobs people could do, like farming or manufacturing. 3. manufacturing 4. False 5. Cotton 6. Different regions have unique climates and soil types that are better for certain crops. 7. food 8. True 9. Farming 10. It helps us appreciate the diversity of resources and how they shape our communities and jobs.