

National Monuments and Memorials Review

BibleMouse.com

Understand the significance of American symbols and patriotism

Name: _____

Date: _____

Answer the following questions based on what you learned about national monuments and memorials.

1. What are national monuments and why are they important?

2. What do monuments help us remember?

- A. Only famous people
- B. Historical events and sacrifices
- C. Only wars

3. Monuments serve as a ___ to remind us of important historical moments.

4. Monuments only tell stories about famous people.

- True False

5. How can remembering history inspire future generations?

6. Which of the following is a key purpose of national monuments?

- A. To provide fun activities
- B. To honor heroes and important moments
- C. To sell souvenirs

7. The memorial stones mentioned in Joshua 4 remind the children of Israel of God's faithfulness.

- True False

8. Each monument tells a story about American ___ and what it stands for.

9. What makes a moment important enough to create a monument?

10. What should you do when your children ask about a monument?

- A. Ignore them
- B. Tell them the story behind it
- C. Change the subject

Answer Key

1. National monuments are structures that honor important historical events or people. They are important because they help us remember our history and the sacrifices made for our country. 2. Historical events and sacrifices 3. memorial 4. False 5. Remembering history can inspire future generations by teaching them about the sacrifices made and the values that are important, motivating them to honor these lessons. 6. To honor heroes and important moments 7. True 8. history 9. A moment is important enough to create a monument if it significantly impacted the country, involved great sacrifice, or represents values that we want to remember. 10. Tell them the story behind it

