

Timeline of American History Review

BibleMouse.com

Understanding Our Past

Name: _____

Date: _____

Answer the following questions based on what you learned about American history and God's role in it.

1. What is one major historical event you would include in your timeline? Why is it significant?

2. Who does Deuteronomy 32:7 suggest we ask about our history?

- A. Our friends
- B. Our fathers and elders
- C. Our teachers

3. Understanding historical sequence helps us see how events build upon each other.

True False

4. Deuteronomy 32:7 encourages us to remember the days of ____ and consider the years of many generations.

5. How can we see God's plan in historical events? Give an example.

6. Which of the following periods is NOT part of early American history?

- A. Colonial Times
- B. The Renaissance
- C. The American Revolution

7. It is important to forget our history so we can move on.

True False

8. The timeline activity helps us illustrate major historical ____ in American history.

9. What should we reflect on when we look at our history?

- A. Only the good events
- B. How events connect to one another
- C. The places we visited

10. Why is it important to remember our history? Explain in a few sentences.

Answer Key

1. I would include the signing of the Declaration of Independence because it marked the beginning of America as a free nation. 2. Our fathers and elders 3. True 4. old 5. We can see God's plan through events like the founding of America, where leaders sought freedom and justice, reflecting God's desires for His people. 6. The Renaissance 7. False 8. events 9. How events connect to one another 10. Remembering our history helps us learn from past mistakes and successes, guiding us in making better choices for the future.

