

Complete vs. Incomplete Sentences

BibleMouse.com

Understanding Sentence Structure

Name: _____

Date: _____

Answer the following questions based on what you learned about complete and incomplete sentences.

1. What makes a sentence complete?

- A. It has a subject and a predicate
- B. It is very long
- C. It includes a question mark

2. Why is clear communication important in sharing God's message?

3. A fragment is a complete sentence.

- True False

4. Complete sentences honor God by allowing for clear ____.

5. What does Proverbs 15:1 teach us about communication?

- A. Gentle words are helpful
- B. Harsh words are better
- C. Silence is golden

6. How do complete sentences help us understand each other?

7. Pleasant words are compared to honey in Proverbs 16:24.

- True False

8. A ____ sentence tells a complete thought.

9. Which of the following is an example of an incomplete sentence?

- A. The cat is sleeping.
- B. Because I went to the store.
- C. She sings beautifully.

10. Explain why fragments are like incomplete stories.

Answer Key

1. It has a subject and a predicate 2. Clear communication helps others understand God's message better and shows respect for His teachings. 3. False 4. communication 5. Gentle words are helpful 6. Complete sentences provide clarity and context, making it easier for people to grasp the meaning of what is being said. 7. True 8. complete 9. Because I went to the store. 10. Fragments do not provide enough information to understand the full idea, just like an incomplete story leaves out important details.