

Sentence Surgery Center Review

BibleMouse.com

Reviewing Sentence Superheroes Concepts

Name: _____

Date: _____

Answer the following questions based on what you learned in the lesson.

1. What is a sentence fragment?

- A. A complete thought
- B. An incomplete thought
- C. A type of punctuation

2. Run-on sentences are good for writing because they convey many ideas at once.

- True False

3. Why is clear writing important?

4. A run-on sentence combines too many ideas without proper ____.

5. What happens when sentences are unclear?

- A. They make communication easier
- B. They can confuse the reader
- C. They are always correct

6. Good writers do not need to edit their sentences for clarity.

- True False

7. What types of errors did you find in the sample paragraph?

8. Proverbs 15:23 teaches us that a good answer brings ____ to others.

9. How can we fix a run-on sentence?

- A. Add a period or a semicolon
- B. Make it longer
- C. Ignore it

10. How did you fix the errors in your paragraph during the Sentence Surgery Workshop?

Answer Key

1. an incomplete thought 2. False 3. Clear writing helps others understand your ideas without confusion. 4. punctuation 5. They can confuse the reader 6. False 7. I found sentence fragments and run-on sentences that needed correction. 8. joy 9. Add a period or a semicolon 10. I identified fragments and run-ons, then added the necessary punctuation or restructured the sentences.