

Story Mountain Expedition Review

BibleMouse.com

Understanding Narrative Structure

Name: _____

Date: _____

Answer the following questions based on the lesson about narrative stories and David's fight with Goliath.

1. What are the five parts of a story mountain?

- A. Exposition, Rising Action, Climax, Falling Action, Resolution
- B. Introduction, Conflict, Climax, Conclusion, Resolution
- C. Beginning, Middle, End, Climax, Resolution

2. How did David show courage in his story?

3. In a story, the ____ is the most exciting part.

4. The falling action is the part of the story where the main character faces their biggest challenge.

- True False

5. What is the purpose of having challenges in a narrative?

- A. To make the story longer
- B. To help characters grow and develop
- C. To confuse the reader

6. What does the memory verse 2 Timothy 1:7 teach us about fear?

7. The story elements include characters, setting, plot, conflict, and ____.

8. David was a shepherd who fought a giant named Goliath.

- True False

9. What is the first part of the story mountain called?

- A. Climax
- B. Exposition
- C. Resolution

10. How can understanding narrative structure help you as a reader and writer?

Answer Key

1. Exposition, Rising Action, Climax, Falling Action, Resolution 2. David showed courage by facing Goliath even though he was much bigger and stronger. He trusted God to help him. 3. climax 4. False 5. To help characters grow and develop 6. The memory verse teaches us that God gives us strength and self-control, so we should not be afraid. 7. theme 8. True 9. Exposition 10. Understanding narrative structure helps me recognize important story elements and write better stories by organizing my ideas.
