

First Draft Freedom Review

BibleMouse.com

Understanding Narrative Writing

Name: _____

Date: _____

Answer the following questions based on the lesson about writing your first draft.

1. What is the main focus when writing a first draft?

- A. Editing carefully
- B. Telling your story
- C. Making it perfect

2. Why should we not stop to edit while writing a first draft?

3. It is important to feel nervous while writing a first draft.

- True False

4. We commit our writing process to God, trusting that He guides our ____.

5. What might you find challenging about drafting a personal narrative?

6. What does Proverbs 16:3 remind us to do with our plans?

- A. Ignore them
- B. Commit them to Yahweh
- C. Share them with friends

7. First drafts should be perfect and well-edited.

- True False

8. First drafts are ____ - and that's okay!

9. How can we be kind to ourselves during the writing process?

10. What felt good about getting your story started?

- A. Finishing quickly
- B. Seeing my ideas come alive
- C. Having no mistakes

Answer Key

1. Telling your story 2. We should keep writing to let our ideas flow and not get stuck trying to make it perfect. 3. False 4. creativity 5. I might find it hard to get my ideas down without worrying about mistakes. 6. Commit them to Yahweh 7. False 8. messy 9. We can remind ourselves that it's okay to make mistakes and that writing is a process. 10. Seeing my ideas come alive