

Author's Chair Celebration Review

BibleMouse.com

Reflecting on Our Writing and Presentation Skills

Name: _____

Date: _____

Answer the following questions based on what you learned during the Author's Chair Celebration.

1. What did you enjoy about sharing your narrative? Please explain your thoughts in 2-3 sentences.

---

---

---

2. Proverbs 15:23 teaches us that a man has joy in an ____ answer.

3. What is one important skill we practiced during the Author's Chair presentations?

- A. Taking tests
- B. Oral presentation skills
- C. Mathematical calculations

4. Constructive feedback is meant to help us grow and improve our writing.

- True       False

5. Which of the following is a way to encourage someone when they share their writing?

- A. Ignoring them
- B. Clapping and smiling
- C. Criticizing harshly

6. How did listening to others help you? Give an example of something you learned.

---

---

---

7. Ephesians 4:29 encourages us to speak in a way that builds others up.

- True       False

8. When giving feedback, it is important to be ____ and kind.

9. What does it mean to be a supportive audience?

- A. To listen carefully
- B. To talk over the speaker
- C. To leave the room

10. What makes feedback helpful and kind? Describe in a few sentences.

---

---

---

---

Answer Key

1. I enjoyed sharing my story because it made me feel proud. It was exciting to see my classmates listen and react to my writing. 2. apt 3. Oral presentation skills 4. True 5. Clapping and smiling 6. Listening to others helped me understand different writing styles. I learned new ideas that I can use in my own stories. 7. True 8. helpful 9. To listen carefully 10. Helpful feedback is specific and focuses on what the writer did well and what could be improved. Kind feedback is delivered in a positive way that encourages the writer to keep trying.