

Informative Writing and Biblical Themes

BibleMouse.com

Review of Topic Selection

Name: _____

Date: _____

Answer the following questions based on what you learned about selecting informative writing topics.

1. What is one way to start brainstorming topics?

- A. Choose a very specific topic
- B. Think of broad areas like animals or plants
- C. Pick a random topic

2. What topic did you choose for your informative writing?

3. Narrowing down a topic can help make it easier to write about.

- True False

4. Proverbs 22:20 teaches us about writing excellent things of counsel and ____.

5. Why is it important to connect writing topics to biblical themes?

- A. It makes writing easier
- B. It helps others learn about God
- C. It allows more freedom

6. How might your chosen topic help others learn about God?

7. You should choose topics that do not relate to God's design.

- True False

8. When brainstorming, it's helpful to think of ____ areas before narrowing down.

9. What is an example of a broad area to start brainstorming?

- A. A specific animal
- B. Biblical lands
- C. A single event

10. What interesting things has God created that you could potentially write about?

Answer Key

1. Think of broad areas like animals or plants 2. I chose to write about the amazing animals God created. 3. True 4. knowledge 5. It helps others learn about God 6. My topic can show how God designed animals to be unique and useful. 7. False 8. broad 9. Biblical lands 10. I could write about the different plants in the Garden of Eden.