

Informative Writing Review

BibleMouse.com

Understanding Organizational Structures

Name: _____

Date: _____

Answer the following questions about organizing information and informative writing.

1. What are main ideas in writing compared to?

- A. Rooms
- B. Foundation
- C. Walls

2. To organize information well, we need to create an ____ with main ideas and supporting details.

3. Supporting details are like the foundation of a house.

- True       False

4. Why is organization important in writing?

---

---

5. Which organizational structure involves showing how two things are similar or different?

- A. Chronological
- B. Compare/Contrast
- C. Cause/Effect

6. Through wisdom, a house is built according to Proverbs 24:3.

- True       False

7. How can we make our writing easy to follow?

---

---

8. A good outline helps readers understand the ____ of the writing.

9. What does Proverbs 24:4 say is filled with knowledge?

- A. The house
- B. The rooms
- C. The walls

10. What did you learn about organizing information in this lesson?

---

---

---

Answer Key

1. Foundation   2. outline   3. False   4. It helps readers understand the information clearly and follow the writer's ideas.   5. Compare/Contrast   6. True   7. By using clear main ideas and supporting details in a logical order.   8. structure   9. The rooms   10. I learned that organizing information helps to build a clear structure, just like building a house.