

Understanding Modal Auxiliaries

BibleMouse.com

Obligation Station Review

Name: _____

Date: _____

Answer the following questions based on the lesson about modal auxiliaries and Christian responsibilities.

1. What does 'must' express in terms of obligation?

- A. Strong obligation
- B. Recommended action
- C. Moral expectation

2. In your own words, explain the difference between 'should' and 'ought to'.

3. Modal auxiliaries can help us understand our Christian responsibilities.

- True False

4. According to Ephesians 2:10, we are created for ____ works.

5. What is an example of a responsibility Christians have according to the lesson?

- A. To love mercy
- B. To play games
- C. To ignore others

6. How do God's commands guide our actions? Provide an example.

7. 'Ought to' is a weaker expression of obligation than 'must'.

- True False

8. Micah 6:8 shows us what Yahweh ____ of us.

9. Which of the following best describes the meaning of 'should'?

- A. It is something we must do
- B. It is a suggested action
- C. It is not important

10. Write a sentence using 'must' that relates to your responsibilities as a Christian.

Answer Key

1. Strong obligation 2. 'Should' suggests a recommended action, while 'ought to' implies a moral expectation to do something. 3. True 4. good 5. To love mercy 6. God's commands guide us by showing us the right way to live. For example, He tells us to love one another, which helps us treat others kindly. 7. False 8. requires 9. It is a suggested action 10. I must help those in need because it is what Jesus taught us to do.