

Informative Writing: Introduction Hook and Thesis

BibleMouse.com

Review Questions on Writing Techniques

Name: _____

Date: _____

Answer the following questions based on what you learned about writing engaging introductions.

1. What is the purpose of a hook in an introduction?

- A. To summarize the text
- B. To capture reader interest
- C. To provide a conclusion

2. What are two types of hooks you can use in your writing?

3. A thesis statement tells readers what to expect from the writing.

- True False

4. A good introduction acts as the ____ for your writing.

5. Why is a clear thesis important?

- A. It entertains the reader
- B. It makes writing longer
- C. It clearly states the main topic

6. How can you make your first sentence interesting in an introduction?

7. Good introductions do not need to capture the reader's curiosity.

- True False

8. Hooks can be questions, surprising facts, or ____ statements.

9. What might make someone want to read your informative writing?

- A. A boring title
- B. An engaging hook
- C. Long sentences

10. What does Proverbs 16:23 teach us about communication?

Answer Key

1. To capture reader interest 2. You can use a question or a surprising fact as a hook. 3. True 4. front door 5. It clearly states the main topic 6. You can start with a surprising statement or an intriguing question. 7. False 8. exciting 9. An engaging hook 10. It teaches us that wise communication involves careful thought and learning.