

Body Paragraph Builders Review

BibleMouse.com

Understanding Informative Writing

Name: _____

Date: _____

Answer the following questions based on our lesson about drafting informative writing.

1. What should each body paragraph focus on?

- A. Multiple main ideas
- B. One clear main idea
- C. Supporting details only

2. Why is it important to use research notes when writing a paragraph?

3. A body paragraph needs a main idea and supporting ____.

4. It is okay to include more than one main idea in a body paragraph.

- True False

5. What does Proverbs 12:17 teach us about communication?

- A. It's important to be deceitful.
- B. We should always be truthful.
- C. We can ignore the truth if it sounds better.

6. How can you make your paragraph interesting?

7. Clear explanation of the main idea helps the reader to understand the ____.

8. Supporting details can come from your own thoughts and experiences only.

- True False

9. What is the first step in drafting a body paragraph?

- A. Choosing a main idea
- B. Writing the conclusion
- C. Adding supporting details

10. What was challenging about writing your paragraph?

Answer Key

1. One clear main idea 2. Using research notes helps provide specific details that support the main idea and makes the paragraph more informative. 3. details 4. False 5. We should always be truthful. 6. You can make your paragraph interesting by adding engaging details, examples, or questions that relate to the main idea. 7. content 8. False 9. Choosing a main idea 10. I found it difficult to choose just one main idea and to find enough supporting details.