

Understanding Strong Conclusions

BibleMouse.com

A Review of Writing Informative Conclusions

Name: _____

Date: _____

Answer the following questions based on what you learned about writing conclusions in informative writing.

1. What should a strong conclusion do?

- A. Introduce new ideas
- B. Restate the main topic
- C. Make the reader confused

2. Why is it important to avoid introducing new information in a conclusion?

---

---

3. A conclusion should summarize the ____ points made in the writing.

4. A conclusion is not necessary in informative writing.

- True       False

5. Name two key components that should be included in a strong conclusion.

---

---

6. What is a memorable closing statement meant to do?

- A. Confuse the reader
- B. Leave a lasting impression
- C. Make the conclusion longer

7. The purpose of a conclusion is to provide a sense of ____.

8. Summarizing main points helps the reader remember the important information.

- True       False

9. How can a good conclusion help your reader?

---

---

10. Why is a conclusion important in informative writing?

- A. It makes the writing longer
- B. It summarizes the information
- C. It introduces new topics

---

Answer Key

1. restate the main topic   2. Introducing new information can confuse the reader and disrupt the clarity of the message.   3. key   4. False   5. A strong conclusion should restate the main idea and summarize key points.   6. Leave a lasting impression   7. closure   8. True   9. A good conclusion helps the reader remember the main points and understand the overall message of the writing.   10. It summarizes the information