

Oral Presentation Skills Review

BibleMouse.com

Practice Makes Prepared

Name: _____

Date: _____

Answer the following questions based on what you learned about oral presentations.

1. What are two important skills you should use when giving an oral presentation?

2. What should you do to make your audience interested?

- A. Read from your notes
- B. Use body language
- C. Speak very quickly

3. It is important to give constructive feedback to your partner.

- True False

4. Your speech should always be with grace, seasoned with ____.

5. How can making eye contact with your audience help your presentation?

6. According to Proverbs 15:23, what brings joy?

- A. Giving an apt answer
- B. Speaking very loudly
- C. Ignoring questions

7. Standing confidently is not important during a presentation.

- True False

8. To improve your presentation, you should practice ____ with a partner.

9. What did you learn today that can help you in your next presentation?

10. What does it mean to 'speak at a steady pace'?

- A. To talk very fast
- B. To talk slowly and clearly
- C. To mumble

Answer Key

1. Eye contact and speaking clearly. 2. Use body language 3. True 4. salt 5. It helps engage the audience and shows you are confident. 6. Giving an apt answer 7. False 8. feedback 9. I learned to practice more and to be enthusiastic about my topic. 10. To talk slowly and clearly