

Oral Presentations: Planning and Practice

BibleMouse.com

Review Questions for Presentation Day: Part One

Name: _____

Date: _____

Answer the following questions based on our lesson about oral presentations.

1. What is one objective of our lesson on oral presentations?

- A. To write stories
- B. To demonstrate effective oral presentation skills
- C. To memorize Bible verses

2. Maintaining eye contact with the speaker is important during presentations.

True False

3. Why is it important to give constructive and kind feedback after a presentation?

4. Proverbs 15:23 teaches us that a man has joy in an ____ answer.

5. What should we practice while someone is presenting?

- A. Talking to our friends
- B. Active listening
- C. Drawing pictures

6. Listening carefully without interrupting shows respect for the speaker.

True False

7. How can we show Christ's love through our listening during presentations?

8. 1 Corinthians 14:26 encourages us to let all things be done to build each other ____.

9. What is one way to prepare feedback for a presentation?

- A. By writing a harsh critique
- B. By preparing an encouraging comment
- C. By ignoring the speaker

10. It is okay to distract others while someone is presenting.

True False

Answer Key

1. To demonstrate effective oral presentation skills 2. True 3. It helps the speaker improve and feel encouraged. Kind feedback shows we care about their efforts. 4. apt 5. Active listening 6. True 7. We can show love by being attentive, not interrupting, and giving positive feedback. 8. up 9. By preparing an encouraging comment 10. False