

Fact-Checking and Citation Review

BibleMouse.com

Understanding the Importance of Truth in Writing

Name: _____

Date: _____

Answer the following questions based on what you learned about fact-checking and citation.

1. What did you learn about checking facts in your writing?

---

---

2. According to Proverbs 12:22, what type of lips are an abomination to Yahweh?

- A. Truthful lips
- B. Lying lips
- C. Kind lips

3. It is okay to use information from any source without checking if it's true.

- True       False

4. Ephesians 4:25 teaches us to put away ____ and speak truth.

5. Why is it important to be truthful in writing?

- A. To make it sound better
- B. To avoid getting in trouble
- C. To help others trust the information

6. How can you tell if a source is reliable?

---

---

7. You should always give credit to original sources when you use their information.

- True       False

8. If you find conflicting information, you should ____ to determine which is true.

9. What should you do if you are unsure about a fact?

- A. Guess and write it down
- B. Ask a trusted adult
- C. Ignore it

10. Why do writers need to be careful about the facts they include in their work?

---

---

---

Answer Key

1. I learned that it's important to verify facts by using multiple sources. 2. Lying lips 3. False 4. falsehood 5. To help others trust the information 6. I can check if the author is an expert and if the information is found in multiple places. 7. True 8. cross-reference 9. Ask a trusted adult 10. Writers need to be careful because incorrect facts can mislead readers and damage their credibility.