

Informative Writing Gallery Walk Review

BibleMouse.com

Understanding Feedback and Encouragement

Name: _____

Date: _____

Answer the following questions based on what you learned during the Informative Writing Gallery Walk.

1. What did you learn from reading others' work during the gallery walk?

---

---

2. Constructive feedback can help writers feel more confident.

True  False

3. What is the main purpose of providing positive feedback?

- A. To criticize the writer
- B. To make the writer feel bad
- C. To encourage and uplift the writer

4. The verse Ephesians 4:29 encourages us to speak what is ____ for building up others.

5. How did it feel to receive comments on your writing?

---

---

6. What should you look for when giving feedback?

- A. Mistakes in spelling
- B. Specific strengths in the writing
- C. How quickly the writer finished

7. It is important to use kind language when providing feedback.

True  False

8. A good word can make a person's heart feel ____.

9. What makes feedback feel supportive to you?

---

---

10. Which verse reminds us to use our words to build others up?

- A. Proverbs 12:25
- B. Ephesians 4:29
- C. Philippians 4:13

---

Answer Key

1. I learned about different styles of informative writing and how to express my thoughts clearly. 2. True 3. To encourage and uplift the writer 4. good 5. It felt great to know that others liked my work and appreciated the effort I put into it. 6. Specific strengths in the writing 7. True 8. glad 9. Feedback feels supportive when it highlights what I did well and encourages me to keep improving. 10. Ephesians 4:29