

Informative Writing Reflection

BibleMouse.com

Reflecting on Your Writing Journey

Name: _____

Date: _____

Answer the following questions based on what you learned about informative writing and personal growth.

1. What did you learn about yourself as a writer during this lesson?

2. What is one goal you can set to improve your writing?

- A. Writing every day
- B. Ignoring feedback
- C. Avoiding difficult topics

3. Setting goals can help you become a better writer.

- True False

4. Proverbs 16:3 teaches us to commit our work to ____.

5. How can you continue to improve your writing after this lesson? Give two examples.

6. Which of the following is a strength you might notice in your writing?

- A. Good grammar
- B. Too many mistakes
- C. No ideas

7. Reflecting on your writing helps you understand where you need to improve.

- True False

8. By reflecting on my writing, I can recognize my ____ for future development.

9. What specific strength did you identify in your informative writing?

10. What is the main purpose of the lesson?

- A. To publish a book
- B. To reflect on writing and set goals
- C. To write a poem

Answer Key

1. I learned that I can improve my writing by practicing more and asking for feedback. 2. Writing every day 3. True 4. Yahweh 5. I can read more books to learn different styles and ask my teacher for advice on my drafts. 6. Good grammar 7. True 8. areas 9. I noticed that I am good at organizing my ideas clearly. 10. To reflect on writing and set goals