

Understanding Opinion vs. Fact

BibleMouse.com

---

Review Questions from the Lesson

Name: _____

Date: _____

Answer the questions below based on what you learned about facts and opinions.

1. What is a fact?

- A. A personal belief
- B. A provable statement
- C. An untestable idea

2. An opinion is a personal ____ that can be supported by reasons.

3. Facts cannot be proven true or false.

- True       False

4. What makes a strong opinion?

---

---

5. Why is it important to know if something is a fact or an opinion?

- A. To argue with friends
- B. To understand different perspectives
- C. To ignore facts

6. Good opinions have strong supporting ____ to make them believable.

7. Proverbs 18:17 teaches us about the importance of examining different perspectives.

- True       False

8. How can you support your opinion when discussing with others?

---

---

---

9. What does the saying 'He who pleads his case first seems right' imply?

- A. Everyone is always right
- B. First impressions can be misleading
- C. All opinions are equal

10. Opinions reflect personal views and do not need evidence to be valid.

- True       False

---

Answer Key

1. A provable statement 2. belief 3. False 4. A strong opinion is supported by clear reasons or evidence. 5. To understand different perspectives 6. evidence 7. True 8. You can provide examples or facts that relate to your opinion to help others understand your viewpoint. 9. First impressions can be misleading 10. False