

Understanding Un- and Dis- Prefixes

BibleMouse.com

Review Your Learning About Prefixes

Name: _____

Date: _____

Answer the following questions based on what you learned about prefixes un- and dis- and their impact on word meanings.

1. What does the prefix 'un-' mean?

- A. To make happy
- B. Not or opposite
- C. To agree

2. Which word means 'not kind'?

- A. Unkind
- B. Disagree
- C. Kind

3. The prefix 'dis-' means ____ or opposite.

4. How can our word choices reflect Christian character?

5. The prefix 'un-' can change a word to mean the opposite.

- True False

6. What did you learn about how prefixes can change the meaning of words?

7. Which of these words uses the prefix 'dis-'?

- A. Unhappy
- B. Disagree
- C. Kindness

8. Using harsh words can help build others up.

- True False

9. Ephesians 4:29 teaches us to use speech that is ____ for building others up.

10. How can we use kind words to show God's love?

Answer Key

1. not or opposite 2. not kind 3. not 4. Our words can show kindness and love, reflecting God's character to others. 5. True 6. I learned that prefixes like un- and dis- can change a word to mean the opposite, which is important for clear communication. 7. Disagree 8. False 9. good 10. We can use kind words to encourage others and make them feel valued, just as God loves us.