

Sentence Variety and Style Review

BibleMouse.com

Understanding Different Ways to Start Sentences

Name: _____

Date: _____

Answer the following questions based on the lesson about varying sentence beginnings.

1. What is one way to start a sentence?

- A. With a subject
- B. With a number
- C. With a color

2. Which sentence starts with an adverb?

- A. The dog barked loudly.
- B. Quickly, the rabbit hopped away.
- C. The sun is shining.

3. A sentence that starts with a prepositional phrase begins with a word like ____.

4. Why is it important to vary sentence beginnings in writing?

5. A dependent clause can be used to start a sentence.

- True False

6. What does Proverbs 15:1 teach us about words?

- A. Soft answers are unimportant
- B. Harsh words are helpful
- C. Soft answers can calm anger

7. One example of a sentence starting with a subject is '____ jumped high.'

8. Can you give an example of a sentence that starts with a prepositional phrase? Write one.

9. The lesson suggests that using varied sentence openings can improve writing style.

- True False

10. What is a benefit of using different sentence starts?

- A. It makes writing boring
- B. It helps express ideas more clearly
- C. It confuses the reader

Answer Key

1. With a subject 2. Quickly, the rabbit hopped away. 3. under 4. Varying sentence beginnings makes writing more interesting and keeps the reader engaged. 5. True 6. Soft answers can calm anger 7. The cat 8. Under the bright sky, the children played happily. 9. True 10. It helps express ideas more clearly