

Personal Editing Checklist Review

BibleMouse.com

Reflecting on Our Writing Skills

Name: _____

Date: _____

Answer the following questions based on what you learned about creating a personal editing checklist.

1. What did you learn about your writing today?

2. What is the purpose of creating a personal editing checklist?

- A. To ignore my mistakes
- B. To improve my writing
- C. To make my writing longer

3. Using a checklist can help you become a better writer.

True False

4. Proverbs 15:28 teaches us to weigh our answers and be careful with our ____

5. How can your checklist help you become a better writer?

6. Which of these is a common writing mistake?

- A. Using correct punctuation
- B. Spelling errors
- C. Capitalizing proper nouns

7. Self-reflection in writing is not important.

True False

8. A personalized editing checklist should be based on my own ____

9. What is one way to identify your writing weaknesses?

- A. Reading other people's writing
- B. Using previous writing samples
- C. Ignoring feedback

10. What specific strategies can you include in your editing checklist?

Answer Key

1. I learned what my common mistakes are and how to improve them. 2. To improve my writing 3. True 4. words 5. It helps me focus on my weaknesses and reminds me to check for specific mistakes. 6. Spelling errors 7. False 8. writing samples 9. Using previous writing samples 10. I can include checking for run-on sentences and ensuring I use correct verb tenses.

