

Multimedia Presentations Review

BibleMouse.com

Understanding Feedback and Improvement

Name: _____

Date: _____

Answer the following questions based on what you learned about delivering multimedia presentations and giving feedback.

1. What is one key principle of giving constructive feedback?

- A. Be vague
- B. Focus on the person
- C. Be specific

2. What did you learn about your presentation during practice?

3. The ear that listens to ____ of life will remain among the wise.

4. Constructive feedback should be kind and respectful.

- True False

5. Which of the following is NOT a principle of constructive feedback?

- A. Use 'I' statements
- B. Offer specific suggestions
- C. Make it personal

6. How can you improve for tomorrow's showcase?

7. When giving feedback, balance positive observations with areas for ____.

8. Good feedback is the same as criticism.

- True False

9. Why is it important to use 'I' statements in feedback?

- A. It makes feedback sound nicer
- B. It helps focus on the feedback rather than the person
- C. It takes longer to say

10. What makes good feedback different from criticism?

Answer Key

1. Be specific 2. I learned that I need to speak more clearly and use better visuals. 3. reproof 4. True 5. Make it personal 6. I can practice my speech more and ask for feedback from my friends. 7. improvement 8. False 9. It helps focus on the feedback rather than the person 10. Good feedback is specific and focuses on improvement, while criticism can be harsh and unhelpful.