

Language Arts Skills Inventory Review

BibleMouse.com

Reflecting on Personal Growth

Name: _____

Date: _____

Answer the following questions based on what you learned during the Language Arts Skills Inventory lesson.

1. What surprised you about your skills this year? Write a few sentences explaining your feelings.

---

---

---

2. What is the purpose of a skills inventory?

- A. To compare yourself to others
- B. To see what you have learned and where to improve
- C. To show how much you have memorized

3. Self-reflection is not necessary for understanding our progress.

- True       False

4. According to Proverbs 16:16, getting ____ is better than gold.

5. What areas would you like to improve next year? List at least two skills and explain why they are important to you.

---

---

---

6. What does Colossians 3:23 encourage us to do?

- A. Work for others
- B. Work heartily for the Lord
- C. Take it easy on our tasks

7. Learning is a lifelong adventure according to the lesson.

- True       False

8. It's okay to identify areas where we need more ____ in our skills.

9. How can you continue learning during the summer? Write down a few activities you can do to improve your language arts skills.

---

---

---

10. Which of the following is a benefit of self-reflection?

- A. It helps us forget our mistakes
- B. It helps us understand our progress
- C. It makes us feel worse about ourselves

---

Answer Key

1. I was surprised to learn that I am better at writing than I thought. I feel proud of my progress. 2. To see what you have learned and where to improve 3. False 4. wisdom 5. I want to improve my spelling and oral communication. Spelling is important for writing clearly, and being able to speak well will help me share my ideas better. 6. Work heartily for the Lord 7. True 8. practice 9. I can read books, write a journal, and practice spelling with games. These activities will help me stay sharp. 10. It helps us understand our progress