

Review of 'Because of Winn-Dixie' Chapter 5

BibleMouse.com

Understanding Opal's Memories of Her Mother

Name: _____

Date: _____

Answer the following questions based on Chapter 5 and what you learned about Opal's mother.

1. What are three things Opal remembers about her mother? List them below.

2. What feeling might Opal have when she remembers her mother?

- A. Happy
- B. Angry
- C. Confused

3. Opal's memories help her understand her mother's ___ and personality.

4. Opal has only good memories of her mother.

- True False

5. Why do you think Opal cherishes these specific memories about her mother?

6. What can we learn from Opal's memories about her mother?

- A. She was perfect
- B. She had flaws and strengths
- C. She didn't care about Opal

7. Opal's mother is described as someone who loves to ___ and enjoy life.

8. Family stories are important for understanding relationships.

- True False

9. How can remembering family members help us deal with loss?

10. What does Proverbs 17:17 teach us about friendship?

- A. Friends are only here for fun
- B. A friend loves at all times
- C. Family is not important

Answer Key

1. Opal remembers that her mother used to sing a lot, she loved to dance, and she always wore a red hat. 2. Happy 3. character 4. False 5. Opal cherishes these memories because they help her feel connected to her mother and understand who she was. 6. She had flaws and strengths 7. sing 8. True 9. Remembering family members can help us feel their presence and keep their memories alive, which can be comforting when we miss them. 10. A friend loves at all times