

Understanding Setting in Naomi

BibleMouse.com

Influence of Environment on Story Events

Name: _____

Date: _____

Answer the following questions based on the lesson about how setting impacts the story of Naomi.

1. What makes Naomi special in the story?

2. How does the hot Florida setting impact the characters' moods?

- A. Makes them happy
- B. Makes them sleepy
- C. Makes them angry

3. In small towns, people often know each other very well.

- True False

4. The setting of a story can influence how characters ____ and interact with each other.

5. Why do people in small towns know each other so well?

6. What is an example of how weather affects people's behaviors in the story?

- A. Rain makes them cheerful
- B. Heat causes irritability
- C. Cold brings them together

7. The characters in Naomi's story do not change based on their environment.

- True False

8. The earth is full of your creatures, as stated in Psalm 104:24, which shows the diversity of ____.

9. What is one way Naomi's setting shapes her experiences?

- A. By providing her with more friends
- B. By creating challenges she must overcome
- C. By making her wealthy

10. Describe how creating a visual map of the story's setting can help us understand it better.

Answer Key

1. Naomi shows resilience and strength despite her challenges and helps others in the community. 2. 1 3. True 4. act 5. Because they live close together and interact regularly, building strong relationships. 6. 1 7. False 8. environments 9. 1 10. It helps us see the connections between different locations and characters' experiences, making the story clearer.