

Literary Response Essay Planning Review

BibleMouse.com

Understanding the Components of a Literary Analysis

Name: _____

Date: _____

Answer the following questions based on the lesson about literary response essays.

1. What is the purpose of a thesis statement in an essay?

- A. To summarize the entire essay
- B. To tell the main idea of your essay
- C. To provide a conclusion

2. What are the three main components of a literary response essay?

3. Evidence from the text helps to ____ your main point.

4. A strong thesis statement should be vague and unclear.

- True False

5. How can you organize your thoughts before writing an essay?

- A. By writing randomly
- B. By creating a visual map
- C. By ignoring the structure

6. Why is it important to select textual evidence for your essay?

7. According to Proverbs 16:3, if we commit our work to Yahweh, our ____ will be established.

8. Organizing your essay is not necessary if you have good ideas.

- True False

9. What should you think about when choosing a theme for your essay?

- A. Whether it is popular
- B. How you can show it using examples from the book
- C. If it is easy to write about

10. What can you do to ensure your essay is well-structured?

Answer Key

1. To tell the main idea of your essay 2. The three main components are the thesis statement, supporting evidence, and clear organization. 3. prove 4. False 5. By creating a visual map 6. Selecting textual evidence is important because it supports the thesis and helps convince the reader. 7. plans 8. False 9. How you can show it using examples from the book 10. You can create an outline or a map that connects your thesis to your evidence and shows the flow of your essay.