

Fact vs. Fiction in Historical Stories

BibleMouse.com

Review Worksheet

Name: _____

Date: _____

Answer the following questions based on what you learned about historical fiction.

1. What do we call real events, people, and places in a story?
  - A. Fictional elements
  - B. Historical facts
  - C. Imaginary stories
2. Fictional elements in a story are based on real history.
 True     False
3. Why might an author choose to write about a real historical time?
_____
_____
4. Historical fiction blends real history with ____ characters and stories.
5. How can stories help us learn about history?
  - A. They provide facts only
  - B. They engage our imagination
  - C. They only tell fictional events
6. Good historical fiction includes both factual and fictional elements.
 True     False
7. What was the most surprising thing you learned today?
_____
_____
8. The Bible shares true stories that teach us important ____
9. What is the purpose of blending real history with imaginary characters?
  - A. To confuse readers
  - B. To make history more interesting
  - C. To create a boring story
10. Proverbs 22:20 emphasizes the importance of knowledge and counsel.
 True     False

---

Answer Key

1. Historical facts   2. False   3. Authors might want to show how real events affected people's lives.   4. imaginary   5. They engage our imagination   6. True   7. I learned how authors combine facts and imagination in historical fiction.   8. lessons   9. To make history more interesting   10. True