

Historical Fiction Review

BibleMouse.com

Exploring the Past Through Stories

Name: _____

Date: _____

Answer the following questions to review what you've learned about historical fiction.

1. What is the main purpose of historical fiction?

- A. To entertain with made-up stories
- B. To teach us about different time periods
- C. To create fictional characters only

2. How can stories help us understand history?

3. Deuteronomy 32:7 encourages us to remember the days of ____.

4. Historical fiction is always completely true and factual.

- True False

5. What should you do after reading a historical fiction book in class?

- A. Forget about it
- B. Discuss it with friends
- C. Place a sticky note on the class timeline

6. What surprised you about life in a different time, based on the stories you read?

7. Not everything in a historical fiction story is ____, but the setting can be accurate.

8. Historical fiction can help us imagine life in different times.

- True False

9. Why is it important to learn from elders according to Deuteronomy 32:7?

- A. They have stories about the past
- B. They don't know much about history
- C. They only tell made-up stories

10. What historical period was most interesting to you and why?

Answer Key

1. To teach us about different time periods 2. Stories can show us how people lived in different times and what their cultures were like. 3. old 4. False 5. Place a sticky note on the class timeline 6. I was surprised that people didn't have the same technology we have today, like smartphones. 7. true 8. True 9. They have stories about the past 10. The Civil War period was interesting because I learned about the struggles and bravery of people during that time.