

Courage in Action: The Johansens' Choice

BibleMouse.com

A Review of Courage and Sacrificial Love

Name: _____

Date: _____

Answer the following questions based on the lesson about the Johansen family's bravery and choices.

1. What motivates the Johansen family to help Ellen?

- A. Fear of the Nazis
- B. Their love for Ellen
- C. Desire for recognition

2. What risks are the Johansens taking by helping Ellen? Provide two examples.

3. The Johansen family's actions show sacrificial love.

- True False

4. In John 15:13, it says that greater love has no one than this, that someone lay down his life for his ____.

5. How does the Johansen family demonstrate courage?

- A. By hiding from the Nazis
- B. By risking their lives to protect a friend
- C. By staying quiet

6. Why is it important to help others, even when it is dangerous? Explain in a few sentences.

7. Courage means not feeling afraid at all.

- True False

8. Joshua 1:9 encourages us to be strong and courageous, reminding us that God is with us wherever we ____.

9. What can we learn from the Johansen family's choices?

- A. To avoid helping others
- B. To face our fears with courage
- C. To act selfishly

10. How does God help us when we are afraid? Give at least one example from your life or the lesson.

Answer Key

1. Their love for Ellen 2. They risk being caught by the Nazis and facing punishment. They also risk their own safety and the safety of their family. 3. True 4. friends 5. By risking their lives to protect a friend 6. Helping others is important because it shows love and compassion. It can make a big difference in someone's life, even if it puts us at risk. 7. False 8. go 9. To face our fears with courage 10. God helps us by giving us strength and courage to face our fears. For example, when I was nervous about a presentation, I prayed and felt calm.