

Rahab and the Spies: Biblical Parallels

BibleMouse.com

Understanding Courage and Protection

Name: _____

Date: _____

Answer the following questions based on the lesson about Rahab and the spies.

1. What did Rahab do to protect the spies?

- A. She told the king where they were.
- B. She hid them and misdirected the soldiers.
- C. She left the city with them.

2. Rahab was an Israelite who helped the spies.

- True False

3. What risk did Rahab take by helping the spies? Why was it significant?

4. Rahab's actions demonstrated that God can use ____ people to fulfill His plans.

5. How did Rahab mislead the king's soldiers?

- A. She told them the spies were in her house.
- B. She said she didn't know where the spies were from.
- C. She gave them false directions.

6. Why do you think God used Rahab to protect His people?

7. The memory verse encourages us to lean on our own understanding.

- True False

8. The memory verse teaches us to trust in ____ with all our heart.

9. What can we learn from Rahab's story about being brave?

- A. Bravery is only for heroes.
- B. Everyone can be brave in their own way.
- C. Bravery is not important.

10. How can we be brave like Rahab and the Johansens? Give an example.

Answer Key

1. She hid them and misdirected the soldiers. 2. False 3. Rahab risked her life and safety by hiding the spies. It was significant because it showed her bravery and trust in God. 4. unexpected 5. She said she didn't know where the spies were from. 6. God used Rahab because she had faith and courage to act, showing that He can use anyone to accomplish His purposes. 7. False 8. Yahweh 9. Everyone can be brave in their own way. 10. We can be brave by helping others in need, even if it's difficult. For example, standing up for a friend who is being bullied.
