

Review of Number the Stars

BibleMouse.com

Understanding Rising Action and Climax

Name: _____

Date: _____

Answer the following questions based on the lesson about rising action and climax in Number the Stars.

1. What is rising action in a story?

- A. The events that lead to the climax
- B. The conclusion of the story
- C. The beginning of the story

2. What was the most suspenseful moment in Number the Stars?

---

---

3. Characters in the story face growing ____ that create excitement.

4. Rising action makes a story less exciting.

- True       False

5. How did characters show bravery in Number the Stars?

---

---

6. What can we learn about courage from the story?

- A. It is not needed in difficult times
- B. It helps us face our fears
- C. It is only for heroes

7. In the story, God offers ultimate ____ and refuge to His people.

8. The climax is the turning point in a story where the tension is highest.

- True       False

9. How do authors build suspense in a story?

- A. By making the story boring
- B. By adding more characters
- C. By creating rising action and challenges

10. What did you learn about courage from this lesson?

---

---

---

---

Answer Key

1. The events that lead to the climax    2. The moment when Annemarie had to hide the soldiers and protect her friend.    3. challenges    4. False    5. Annemarie showed bravery by helping her friend and facing danger.    6. It helps us face our fears    7. protection    8. True    9. By creating rising action and challenges    10. I learned that courage means standing up for what is right, even when we are scared.