

Psalms as Poetry Review

BibleMouse.com

Understanding Poetic Elements and Emotional Praise

Name: _____

Date: _____

Answer the following questions based on the lesson about Psalms and poetry.

1. What is one way Psalms express emotions?

- A. By using stories
- B. Through special language
- C. With pictures

2. Psalms are only about sadness and do not express joy.

- True False

3. What is parallelism in poetry, and how is it used in Psalms?

4. Psalm 100:1 tells us to make a joyful ____ to Yahweh, all you lands.

5. What do poets often use to express feelings about God in Psalms?

- A. Imagery
- B. Numbers
- C. Facts

6. Psalms can be a form of worship and emotional expression.

- True False

7. Why do you think people write poems to God?

8. Psalms often use ____ language to create pictures in our minds.

9. Which of the following is an example of a Psalm?

- A. A story
- B. A song
- C. A letter

10. Can you create a short praise poem? Write a few lines to express your praise for God.

Answer Key

1. Through special language 2. False 3. Parallelism is when ideas are repeated in different ways. It is used in Psalms to emphasize feelings and thoughts about God. 4. noise 5. Imagery 6. True 7. People write poems to express their feelings, show their love for God, and connect with Him in a special way. 8. imagery 9. A song 10. Thank you, God, for the bright sun. You make the flowers bloom and fill my heart with joy.
