

Biography Study Review

BibleMouse.com

Understanding Text Features

Name: _____

Date: _____

Answer the following questions based on the lesson about text features in biographies.

1. What is one text feature that helps us understand a biography?

- A. Timelines
- B. Fictional characters
- C. Imaginary places

2. Why might a timeline be helpful in a biography?

3. Captions provide ____ about photographs that may not be included in the main text.

4. Photographs in a biography help us understand a person's life better.

- True False

5. What do headings in a biography help readers do?

- A. Navigate the text
- B. Make stories up
- C. Ignore the information

6. Which text feature did you find most interesting and why?

7. Text features are like ____ in a book that guide readers.

8. Text features are not important for understanding nonfiction texts.

- True False

9. How do text features help readers?

- A. They add more pages
- B. They provide clues for understanding
- C. They make books heavier

10. What can captions tell us that the main text might not?

Answer Key

1. Timelines 2. A timeline helps us see important events in the person's life in order. It shows how their life progressed over time. 3. details 4. True 5. Navigate the text 6. I found the photographs interesting because they showed real moments from the person's life, making it more relatable. 7. road signs 8. False 9. They provide clues for understanding 10. Captions can give specific details about a photo, like when it was taken or what event it represents, which helps us understand the context better.