

Book Club Discussions Week 1 Review

BibleMouse.com

Understanding Literature and Reflection

Name: _____

Date: _____

Answer the following questions based on what you learned about independent reading and writing responses.

1. What did you learn today about writing a response journal entry?

2. What is the main purpose of independent reading?

- A. To memorize facts
- B. To develop comprehension and critical thinking
- C. To finish quickly

3. Asking questions about the story helps us engage more deeply with the text.

True False

4. Proverbs 2:2 teaches us to turn our ear to ____ and apply our heart to understanding.

5. How can reading help us understand people better?

- A. By telling us facts about them
- B. By showing us their feelings and motivations
- C. By making us memorize their names

6. What questions do you have about your book's characters and why are they important?

7. Making connections to personal experiences is not helpful when reading literature.

True False

8. To grow in understanding, we should call out for ____ and lift our voice for understanding.

9. What might a story teach us about God's world?

- A. It can show us how to be kind
- B. It can tell us about geography
- C. It can give us historical facts

10. Reflect on a theme you found in your reading. What is it and how does it relate to our lives?

Answer Key

1. I learned that a good response journal entry includes my thoughts about the characters and themes, not just a summary. 2. To develop comprehension and critical thinking 3. True 4. wisdom 5. By showing us their feelings and motivations 6. I wonder why the main character made a certain choice. Understanding their motivation helps me relate to them better. 7. False 8. discernment 9. It can show us how to be kind 10. A theme I found is friendship. It shows us how important it is to support one another, just like God wants us to.