

Text Features Review

BibleMouse.com

Understanding Nonfiction Texts

Name: _____

Date: _____

Answer the following questions based on what you learned about text features in nonfiction texts.

1. What is the purpose of headings in a nonfiction text?

- A. To tell you what a section is about
- B. To provide specific details
- C. To highlight important terms

2. Bold words in a text are used to highlight ____ terms.

3. How do text features help readers understand information better?

4. Captions explain pictures or diagrams in a text.

- True False

5. Which text feature helps you find specific information quickly?

- A. Index
- B. Heading
- C. Subheading

6. Can you think of a time when a text feature helped you understand something? Describe it.

7. Subheadings provide more ____ details about a topic.

8. Text features are not useful for understanding nonfiction texts.

- True False

9. Which text feature would you use to see a summary of what a section is about?

- A. Heading
- B. Caption
- C. Index

10. Why is it important to apply your heart to understanding, as mentioned in Proverbs 2:2?

Answer Key

1. To tell you what a section is about 2. important 3. Text features make it easier to find and understand important information quickly. 4. True 5. Index 6. I used the index to find information about whales in a book, which helped me learn quickly. 7. specific 8. False 9. Heading 10. It is important because understanding helps us gain wisdom and make better decisions.