

Review of Reading Multiple Sources

BibleMouse.com

Understanding Information from Different Texts

Name: _____

Date: _____

Answer the following questions based on what you learned about comparing information from multiple texts.

1. What new thing did you learn from comparing sources?

---

---

2. All sources provide the same information when discussing a topic.

True  False

3. Why might different sources tell a story differently?

- A. They have different authors
- B. They are written in different languages
- C. They have different illustrations

4. The heart of the discerning gets _____, and the ear of the wise seeks knowledge.

5. How can we be fair when comparing sources?

---

---

---

6. Good readers look carefully at each source.

True  False

7. What is one benefit of reading multiple sources about the same topic?

- A. To find the best source
- B. To get a broader understanding
- C. To memorize all the information

8. Different sources can give different _____ about the same topic.

9. What did the lesson say about unique information in different sources?

---

---

---

10. Comparing sources is not an important skill for readers.

True  False

---

Answer Key

1. I learned that different sources can give different details about the same topic. 2. False 3. 0 4. knowledge 5. We can look for facts and details in each source and not let our opinions affect our judgment. 6. True 7. 1 8. perspectives 9. The lesson explained that each source might have special details that others do not include, which helps us understand better. 10. False