

Synthesis of Information Review

BibleMouse.com

Understanding and Combining Information

Name: _____

Date: _____

Answer the following questions based on what you learned about synthesizing information.

1. What new things did you learn by comparing different sources about the life of David?

2. Why is it important to look at multiple sources?

- A. To confuse ourselves
- B. To understand more completely
- C. To find the easiest answer

3. Combining information from multiple sources can help us understand more deeply.

True False

4. The heart of the discerning gets ____, and the ear of the wise seeks ____ (Proverbs 18:15).

5. How do the Gospels tell Jesus' story from different perspectives? Give an example.

6. What is a synthesis chart used for?

- A. To memorize scripture
- B. To combine information from different sources
- C. To draw pictures

7. It is not necessary to compare information accurately when synthesizing.

True False

8. When we create a synthesis chart, we combine information from ____ sources.

9. What does Proverbs 18:15 teach us about seeking knowledge?

10. What does synthesizing information help us become?

- A. Careless learners
- B. Careful learners
- C. Lazy students

Answer Key

1. I learned that different sources highlighted different events in David's life, which gave me a fuller picture. 2. To understand more completely 3. True 4. knowledge 5. Each Gospel emphasizes different events in Jesus' life. For instance, Matthew focuses on His birth, while John emphasizes His miracles. 6. To combine information from different sources 7. False 8. multiple 9. It teaches us that being wise means wanting to learn and understand more, which is important in gathering information. 10. Careful learners
