

Socratic Seminar Preparation Review

BibleMouse.com

Understanding Text Annotation and Questioning Skills

Name: _____

Date: _____

Answer the following questions based on what you learned about preparing for a Socratic seminar.

1. What is one technique for annotating a text?

- A. Reading silently
- B. Using different colors for notes
- C. Writing a summary at the end

2. It is important to ask questions that help deepen understanding of the text.

- True False

3. Why is it essential to support our ideas with evidence during a discussion?

4. Proverbs 18:15 teaches us that the heart of the ____ acquires knowledge.

5. What should you mark in the margins while annotating?

- A. Only your favorite parts
- B. Questions you have about the text
- C. The author's name

6. Using different colors for notes is not helpful in text annotation.

- True False

7. What makes a question thought-provoking?

8. The ear of the wise seeks ____.

9. How can we show respect when we disagree with someone's idea?

- A. By yelling louder than them
- B. By listening and discussing calmly
- C. By ignoring their point

10. Text annotation is only about highlighting passages and not about writing notes.

- True False

Answer Key

1. Using different colors for notes 2. True 3. Supporting ideas with evidence helps others understand our reasoning and makes our arguments stronger. 4. discerning 5. Questions you have about the text 6. False 7. A thought-provoking question encourages deeper thinking and exploration of ideas, making us consider different perspectives. 8. knowledge 9. By listening and discussing calmly 10. False