

Socratic Seminar: Outer Circle Discussion

BibleMouse.com

Review Questions

Name: _____

Date: _____

Answer the following questions based on the lesson about the Socratic Seminar.

1. What did you learn today about participating in a discussion?

2. What should you do to build on someone else's idea during a discussion?

- A. Change the topic completely
- B. Ask a follow-up question
- C. Ignore their point

3. Listening to others is important in a Socratic Seminar.

True False

4. According to Proverbs 15:31, the ear that listens will be at home among the ____.

5. What was challenging about the discussion you had today?

6. How can your Christian perspective help you in discussions?

- A. By allowing you to dominate the conversation
- B. By helping you to respect others' views
- C. By making you uninterested in others' opinions

7. It's okay to interrupt others during the discussion to share your thoughts.

True False

8. In a Socratic Seminar, it is important to use evidence from the ____.

9. What new insights did you bring to the conversation during the seminar?

10. What is one way to show respect for different perspectives during a discussion?

- A. Listening without judging
- B. Only agreeing with your friends
- C. Talking over others

Answer Key

1. I learned how to listen carefully and respond to others' ideas. 2. Ask a follow-up question 3. True 4. wise 5. It was hard to think of deeper questions to ask. 6. By helping you to respect others' views 7. False 8. text 9. I shared a new way to look at the character's actions based on the text. 10. Listening without judging