

Socratic Seminar Reflection

BibleMouse.com

Understanding Our Communication Skills

Name: _____

Date: _____

Answer the following questions based on what you learned about yourself and your participation in the Socratic seminar.

1. What did you learn about yourself today during the seminar?

2. Why is it important to listen during discussions?

- A. To ignore others
- B. To understand different viewpoints
- C. To wait for my turn to speak

3. Respectful communication helps create a better learning environment.

- True False

4. James 1:19 teaches us to be swift to hear, slow to _____, and slow to anger.

5. How can you be a better listener in future seminars?

6. What is one way to build on others' ideas respectfully?

- A. By interrupting them
- B. By agreeing without thinking
- C. By adding my thoughts related to what they said

7. Asking meaningful questions can help us learn and understand better.

- True False

8. According to Proverbs 15:31, listening to life-giving reproof will keep you among the _____.

9. What did you do well during the seminar?

- A. Listening to others
- B. Talking the most
- C. Not paying attention

10. Where do you think you can improve in your communication skills?

Answer Key

1. I learned that I can express my ideas clearly but need to listen more to others. 2. To understand different viewpoints 3. True 4. speak 5. I can focus on what others are saying and ask questions to show I am engaged. 6. By adding my thoughts related to what they said 7. True 8. wise 9. Listening to others 10. I can work on speaking clearly and giving everyone a chance to share their ideas.