

Multi-Step Problem Solving Review

BibleMouse.com

Reflecting on Our Math Lesson

Name: _____

Date: _____

Answer the following questions based on today's lesson about multi-step problem solving.

1. What is the first step in solving a multi-step word problem?

- A. Determine the answer
- B. Identify important information
- C. Write the final answer

2. Why is it important to check your work systematically after solving a problem?

3. God provides us with ____ to help us understand complex challenges.

4. Following God's instructions is similar to solving multi-step math problems.

- True False

5. Which operation would you use first in the problem: $3 + 4 \times 2$?

- A. Addition
- B. Multiplication
- C. Subtraction

6. What strategy did you use to stay organized while solving the problems today?

7. In today's lesson, we learned to break down problems into ____ steps.

8. Patience and perseverance are not important when solving math problems.

- True False

9. What does Proverbs 2:6 say about wisdom?

- A. It comes from studying hard
- B. Yahweh gives wisdom
- C. It is not important for problem solving

10. How can solving a math problem be like following a recipe?

Answer Key

1. Identify important information 2. It helps to find any mistakes and ensures the answer is correct. 3. understanding 4. True 5. Multiplication 6. I wrote down each step and crossed off information as I used it. 7. manageable 8. False 9. Yahweh gives wisdom 10. Both require careful steps and following instructions to get the right result.